LOCAL BRIEFS.—

Happily, as far as we can learn, the damage done by the recent heavy rains is less than anticipated.

The time is drawing near for the Sheriffs of the several counties to begin selling for State taxes.

Here and there a few yellow leaves upon the trees and gathered obes upon the ground, attest the approach of Autumn.

Sheriff Monger, of Moore county, arrived in this city yesterday, in charge of G. C. Golston who was placed in the Lunatic Asylum.

The Raleigh National Bank is going to adopt the Schillinger pavement in front of their building. A contract has been made with Captain J. C. Brain for the work.

The boy Major Wilson, who has been detained in jail as a state witness in the case of the recent robbery of the A. M. E. Church, was yesterday released on bail.

The Penitentiary yesterday received, two more convicts. Deputy Sheriff Caldwell, of Mecklenburg county, brought to this institution Chas. Moore colored and his wife, Mary Jane.

The common "cedar" tree in this locality, is not a cedar, but simply an uphill juniper, known as the Juniperus Virginiense. The cedars of Lebanon were quite a larger and different tree altogether.

Rolling hoops is now the favorite pastime with the juveniles of this city. Running after hoops is not confined solely to the little ones. We know some grown people who are very fond of the sport and indulge in it whenever an opportunity offers.

One of the police reports that although the hog-law has been suspended, and numerous porkers have been allowed to roam the streets, that there has never been such a scarcity of shoat-meat in the market before, which speaks very well for the hucksters.

By the Wilmington papers of the 23d instant, we see that the Coroner's jury returned a verdict that the deceased, Willie Carter, came to his death at the hands of Elijah Martin, David Martin, Jimmie Anderson and Billy Merrick, through inducements held out by Elizabeth Carter. The parties mentioned were all committed to jail to answer at the next term of the Court.

There is one custom which is about to fall into disuetude among us. We refer to the construction of greenhouses for the winter conservation of rare exotics. Let us keep up the floral fame of Raleigh, and still read in Moss' geography that she is celebrated for her beautiful gardens. A public taste is thus cultivated also, which will add to the reputation of every citizen for beauty and art.

A bachelor friend has completed a well on his premises at a cost of $75, after numerous cavings. He says it will furnish him with water at about 2 cents a pint glass for one year, and questions whether at this rate, he couldn't have made a better thing in taking it out in lager. When Woodson comes home we will have him to resolve the conundrum before Oak City Council Friends of Temperance.

Would it be out of order to suggest a Convention of capitalists and manufacturers in this city during Fair week? Let our people, who are interested in this matter, get together at some central point, and talk over their interests, while the farmers are debating of their own. Who will second the motion? If our friend of the State Agricultural Journal approves of the proposition, we hope he will put the ball in motion.

That new settlement going up on the old Fair Grounds, about thirteen acres in all we believe, will be densely inhabited, and will be quite an offset to Oberlin on the Western limits of the city. Cheap and substantial accommodations will thus be supplied to over a thousand additional residents, and quite a trading centre established in that section of the city. The location is high and healthy, the comb of the ridge being on a level with the eaves of the Williamson building. It is just the spot for "High Raleigh" to be located.

The brown stone quarried in Wake county is excellent building materials if our architects would only go deep enough, and pursue the better veins of this valuable deposit. Some of it which has been used is very inferior, and already shows signs of crumbling and decay. The corners on the new Episcopal belfry are chipping away badly, and the stone on close inspection has lost its original hue. At a distance this is not perceived, but time making greater ravages will yet bring the matter to light. Let us have good stone, or none at all. It is here, as a specimen once shown by P. McGowan, Esq., fairly attest, which was of beautiful color, fine and hard as markle, and held a finish as soft and brilliant as colord glass.

THE RECENT INFANTCIDE.

The Accused Parties in Jail—The Testimony Taken Before the Corner's Jury.

In our issue of yesterday our readers were informed that warrants had been issued for the arrest of Betsy Merritt, colored, and Catherine Merritt, her step-mother, as the parties guilty of the murder of the infant whose dead body was found on the 14th instant in rear of the stable on the premises of Robt. Wyche, on Edenton street. Yesterday morning the accused were arrested and lodged in jail, and in the afternoon were visited by a reporter of the DAILY NEWS. The reporter found the prisoners in one of the upper rooms of the jail, and their quarters seemed to be clean and well ventilated. Betsy, the alleged mother of the murdered infant, is a small, spare made woman of a dark brown color, and while not being actually attractive in appearance, is not by any means bad looking. She stated her age to be 20 years. The step-mother, Catherine, is rather a shrivelled up specimen of ebon femininity, probably about 60 years of age, and is charged with being an accomplice of the daughter in the crime. Both the prisoners evinced a disposition to answer any questions put to them. They both bitterly denied the charges against them, and attributed the accusation to the prejudice of some of the witnesses. The old lady seemed greatly distressed, and was weeping and wringing her hands as if in great agony. The younger woman appeared perfectly composed and seemed to take matters coolly.

As this matter has excited a good deal of interest in this community we give a synopsis of the evidence taken before the Coroner's jury, which first assembled on the afternoon of the 14th instant, on the premises where the murder was committed:

Robt. Wyche testified that Betsy Merritt had been at his house for three weeks. He saw her every day. He saw her during her illness every day. At times she was laying down and at other times sitting up. He saw her at the table eating her meals. He would not say for certain, but was satisfied that between Saturday and the Thursday that the body was discovered, he saw Betsy Merritt at the table at meal times more than once. She ate as usual. Tamer McCullen was never absent from her meals during that time; she was there when Betsy was there. Barbara Utley was also there, in and out of the room. Tamer McCullen and Barbara Utley must have seen Betsy Merritt at the table during the interval between Saturday and Thursday. Betsy was sick on Saturday night. She said she felt bad on Sunday. On Monday she was up and walking about on the piazza. On Tuesday she was up and about. On Wednesday the same. On Thursday the same. Asked how she felt. She said she felt tolerably well. Betsy came to my house before Mrs. Wyche left. Had seen women pregnant. Did not know whether or not Betsy Merritt was pregnant. Never thought such a thing. Never heard it mentioned by any one. Was away from home every night. Kept two bad dogs in the lot, and did not think a stranger could come in without being molested by them, though one might get over the back fence without being discovered by the dogs, but they would have to be very quiet.

Geo. Utley said that he took meals up to Betsy's room, and that she was sick for several day.

Robt. Wyche was recalled and shown the piece of calico found around the child's neck, but said that he had never seen anything of the kind in his house.

Mrs. Jno. R. Caswell was next examined. She had been acquainted with Betsy Merritt. She (Betsy) had stopped at her house some time back, week before last. She (Betsy) was, in her opinion, in a delicate situation. Had made mention of it to Mrs. James Baker and Mrs. Cooper. Mr. Caswell had mentioned the matter a night or two before Betsy and her mother left. She was sitting on the porch one day panting, asked her what ailed her. She said she had the dropsy in her chest. It seemed to be the general opinion of those who saw her, that she was in a delicate situation, (pregnant.)

Emily Lane being sworn, said that she saw Betsy Merritt at Mrs. Caswell's, and that she looked like all the balance of people, that she (Emily) had seen while pregnant. She had thought that she, Betsy, was so. Had mentioned it to Mrs. Caswell during the time she was there.

Mary Pope testified that she had seen Betsy Merritt at Mr. Caswell's store and thought that she was in a delicate situation. Had spoken of it to Mr. Caswell directly she went out. She did not know Betsy at the time. She had no doubt in her mind as to Betsy being pregnant.

Sophia Jefferies next examined—Lived at Dr. Johnson's. His lot joined Wyche's. Discovered the body of the child lying behind the southwest corner of the stable. Saw it when she came to the fence. Called out and gave the alarm. A hog was rooting near the body. Came to the lot and said that there ought to be a jury called and everybody examined. There were present Betsy Merritt, Catharine Merritt, Tamer McCullen, Barbara Utley, and perhaps others, when the remark was made. Betsy Merritt burst out crying. Catharine Merritt, her mother, said to her, "don't cry honey, they don't mean you." Betsy had been sick. She (witness) had been visiting Wyche's every day lately. Had been in and out of the house. When Betsy first came she (witness) thought she was pregnant with child. Had spoken to Barbara Utley of it.

Barbara Utley testified to having gone out and looked at the child when Sophia Jeffries gave the alarm, and to Betsy Merritt having cried. She also testified to Betsy having been taken sick some days before, and that she had not appeared at the table until the day on which the child was found. Her meals had been taken to her room.

The testimony of Tamer McCullen went to show that Betsy was sick for several days before the discovery of the murder. She did not know whether or not Betsy was pregnant.

Barbara Utley was recalled. She washed the bed clothes of Merritt and daughter; did not notice anything unusual about them; did not examine them. Have not washed for the Merritts since.

Catharine Merritt, the step-mother of the alleged mother of the child, deposed as follows: I know nothing of the child. Am as innocent of the crime as a child unborn. About 11 o'clock Saturday night my step daughter Betsy was taken sick with cholera morbus. I did not awaken any of the people in the house. She has not been to the table since Saturday. She ate hearty meals. Her meals were sent to her room. I took them sometimes myself. Betsy was not pregnant; if she had been I would have known it. We occupy the same room and sleep in the same bed. I do my own and my daughter's washing. We (my daughter and I) have been in Raleigh about three weeks; reside in Wilmington; came here from Salisbury; expect to return to Wilmington about the 27th of this month.

John R. Caswell's evidence was in substance, that Besty had been at his house before she went to Wyche's, and that he had thought she was pregnant, and had heard others express the same opinion.

Dr. James McKee, the physician summoned by the Coroner, made two examinations. On the first he could not definitely say that the girl Betsy had recently given birth to a child, but after the second reported that the indications induced him to give it as his opinion that the girl had recently given birth to a child.

In order to render the above perfectly intelligible, we ask the reader to remember that the body of child was found on Thursday noon, August 15th, and that the testimony was taken at different times between that time and the evening of the 23d.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The Board of County Commissioners held an adjourned meeting yesterday at their office in the court house. Messrs. Wynne, Jinks, Jones and Rayner, Commissoners, were present. The following magistrates of the several Townships, elected in the recent election, appeared and qualified: J H Hutchinson, L B Seagraves, W H Burt, J P H Adams, J R Page, R H Slater, O H Page, Isaiah King, C S Jinks, A J Montague, M G Todd, W A Rhodes, G H Alford, J A Morris, J O Harrison, J P Beck, J T Colcleugh, H W Nichols, S H Adams, D M Williams, G A Keith, N B Williams, Jno G Andrews, Eli Dupre, L D Stephenson, S G Hayes, T C Smith, A L Davis, J M Flemming, W R Smith, A N Betts, Wesley Whitaker, J P Prairie, Handy Lockhart, O F Alston, and Mingo G Groom.

This is the full list with the exception of J D Allen, of Barton's Creek Township, and B T Strickland, of Little River Township.

The County Treasurer was ordered to pay C. S. Jinks $300 for the support of the poor of the county.

Messrs. James Hilliard, S. W. Mitchell and W. B. Upchurch were appointed a committee to let out the contract for the building of the bridge across Crabtree creek, on the Pittsboro road, near Wesley Jones' plantation.

After the auditing of some accounts the Board adjourned to meet again on next Saturday.

A NEW DEPOT.—As will be seen by the proceedings of the recent meeting of the stockholders, which appeared in our yesterday's issue, the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company intend erecting a new depot. The elegant shops of this Company are in every way suited to its wants and therefore will not be added to, but the large and increasing business of the Company renders a new depot necessary and indispensable, and we hope soon to see a spacious and handsome building erected. In connection with this matter, we will remind our citizens of one thing, namely, that the charter of the North Carolina Railroad Company has always required them to build and keep in order a better station and more accessible grounds than those now occupied by that corporation. In some cities we know, this dereliction of duty would long ago have become intolerable, and the contract have been forced to fulfilment against the Company.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—Immediately after the adjournment of the meeting of the stockholders of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, on Friday afternoon, the Board of Directors elect held a meeting and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Superintendent—Captain A. B. Andrews.

Master Machinist—J. B. Gayle.

Road Master—J. R. Trower.

It will be seen from the above that there will be no changes in the officers of the road. The re-election of these gentlemen is a well merited compliment to the zeal and efficiency with which they have discharged their duties.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Yesterday his Honor, the Mayor, dealt with the following cases:

Harvey Brown, colored, charged with having on the 3rd of May last stolen a coat, pair of boots, hat and shirt from David Dunn, col., at Forestville. After hearing the testimony, Harvey was committed to jail in default of $200 bail.

A. M Earp was fined $5 for striking Policeman Mitchell, who was endeavoring to arrest him for being intoxicated on the street.

In the first named case his Honor had jurisdiction as a Magistrate of the Township.

RETURNED.—Charles M. Busbee, Esq., of this city, who has been sojourning this season at the Buffalo Springs, has returned, greatly benefited by his trip. He says the season at Buffalo has been unusually gay and pleasant. Messrs. Strong and Batchelor, who are still there, will return next week.

THE STATE FAIR—BOOKS OF ENTRY.—Under this caption the State Agricultural Journal, in its last issue, has the following to say:

"Two months in advance of the grand opening of the State Fair, the Secretary is receiving letters daily from persons in various sections of the Suth, desiring to make entries. From resent indications the next Exposition of the North Carolina Agricultural Society will be the largest ever held in the State, if not the South.

Taken altogether, it is conceded that no Fair in the Southern country has been planned upon so broad a scale as that of North Carolina, or has greater and better facilities for the exhibition of industrial products and Mechanic Arts.

Books of entry will be opened at the rooms of the Society in this city on September 1st. Exhibitors will do well to make a note of this. It matters not what the article is that may be offered for exhibition, we have the room and facilities for making a display at once grand and extensive, eclipsing every other similar undertaking in point of magnitude."

BUTLER AFTER THE NATIONAL BANKS.—Should General Butler return to Congress he is understood to have stated to his friends that he will renew his proposition affecting national banks; to withdraw the bonds which are the basis of their circulation in order to save the interest thereon to the Government, and to authorize the issue of an equivalent amount of legal tenders in place of the bonds. This is essentially General Butler's old plan, by which he claims that he could save to the Government the entire interest upon the bonds held by national banks. He is understood to consider that the time for the re-discussion of the question will arrive with the next Congress.—Boston Post special.

A CHICAGO WIDOW.—A handsome Chicago widow lately played it on Memphis in a way which will render it very unpleasant for future Chicago widows to visit the Tennessee metropolis. She went there as a sufferer from the great fire, and soon induced several sympathetic gentlemen of means to aid her in starting a boarding-house, that unfailing resource of adventurous widows the world over. Of course she could not do otherwise than prosper, for she did a strictly cash business with her customers, while her relations with the butcher and the baker were established entirely upon a credit basis. This went on until she accumulated the snug sum of $5,000, when she bade Memphis a precipitate adieu, leaving the sympathetic gentlemen of means as well as sundry tradesmen very much cast down.

SINGULAR LIGHTNING STROKE.—The Wilmington Commercial says that on Tuesday last, while working in the woods, William Palmer, of Concord, Delaware county, was struck by lightning. The current entered below the left shoulder-blade and passed down the left side, tearing and burning the skin, but not injuring the clothes in any way. Mr. Palmer was not stunned in the least, but felt disposed to lie down, and so walked to a good place, where he prostrated himself, and instructed his son to throw some water over him, when he, the son, took his shoe and carried some water, which he dashed on his father. Mr. Palmer was afterward taken home, and has not yet recovered from the shock received. He had been driving wedges with a maul at the time he was struck, and the handle of that implement was shivered to splinters by the current which struck him.

It is a remarkable and melancholy fact, for which we have the authority of an official report, that last year in Connecticut thirteen thousand children attended no school, being kept at home to earn money for their parents.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Life on the Plains—Generals Stanley and Custer Fighting the Indians.

MUSCAH, SHELL RIVER, Aug. 19th, via Fort Benton, Montana, Aug. 23.—The abundant preparation which the Yellowstone expedition made for the reception of the Indians has been fully justified.

August 4th, General Custer with Bloody Knife and a squadron of cavalry had been detailed by Gen. Stanley to go on several miles in advance of the wagons and look up a road. Having gone about 10 miles ahead, they halted and picketed their horses in a wood by the river to wait for the train. Two hours afterward six Indians appeared on the plain and made a demonstration toward the camp. A dismounted line of skirmishers was thrown out and the horses saddled. The Indians were easily driven off, but proved a decoy of a large party in the neighboring woods, waiting in ambush for the cavalry. Finding that the ruse failed, the Indians to the number of 300, boldly rode out and advanced on the grove occupied by the cavalry. General Custer had only one squadron of 80 men under the command of Capt. Maylen. The men were again dismounted and formed a skirmish line. The Indians also dismounted and formed a line in a semi circle around the cavalry, who had the river at their backs. Rapid firing was kept up at a distance of four hundred yards. Gen. Custer deferred charging, hoping that the main command would soon come up and assist in capturing the Indians. After a three hours' fight, his ammunition gave out. He then charged the Indians, who precipitately fled, dropping many of their equipments. After retreating several miles they took to the bad woods. One man slightly wounded in the arm and one horse wounded formed the extent of Custer's loss. While the fight was going on several Indians left the war party in search of stragglers from the train, and coming upon Dr. Housinger, veterinary surgeon, and Mr. Balarin, the cavalry sutler, who were less than a mile from the column, they killed them and took their clothes and valuables. Private John Ball, of the cavalry, while out hunting met a similar fate. In this fight two Indians were killed and several wounded. They lost several ponies. General Stanley directed General Custer to take cavalry, numbering 450 men and follow the trail, and if possible overtake and punish the Indians. General Custer left on the night of the 8th, and on the morning of August 11th, at day light, was attacked by about eight hundred Indian who came down to the river and fired on his camp. The fire was returned and kept up for two or three hours, both parties using trees as cover. A party of 300 Indians then crossed the river above and below the camp and endeavored to gain the bluffs in the rear. The men posted on the bluffs received them bravely. The Indians behind the ridges kept up a galling fire until Gen. Custer ordered a charge. The men then mounted and pursued them hotly for eight miles. Just at this time the train came up on the Indians across the river with artillery. A few shots dispersed them and ended the fight. This battle, which took place within two miles of the Big Horn was a fierce one. Gen. Custor and Adjutant Ketcham had their horses shot under them. Lieut. Broden was badly shot in the thigh. Private Tuttle, Gen. Custer's orderly, was killed and twenty soldiers slightly wounded. Four horses were killed and three wounded. The Indians' loss is estimated by Gen. Custer at forty killed and wounded. The Indians were well armed with heavy rifles, and had abundant ammunition. Some were dressed in clothes procured at the agencies. These were mainly Uncapapas supposed to be under the command of "Sitting Bull," and also supposed to have received their supplies from Fort Peck, on the Missouri. The expedition which arrived at Pompey's Pillar on the 15th reached Muscel Shell, 155 miles from Fort Benton on the 19th, and is now homeward bound. General Stanley expects to reach Fort Rice by the 1st of October. The health of the command is good.

THE MODOCS TO BE EXECUTED.

The fate of the last of the Modocs has at last been revealed. The brave Jack and his comrades that stood honorably by him in his struggles, are to be hanged by their necks until they are dead. The President approves the sentence of the military commissions and has appointed the third day of October next as the time for the execution.

This sentence and execution were anticipated. Jack's fate was known almost as well on the day he was captured as it is now. His doom was a foregone conclusion.

That he and his comrades were guilty of killing Canby and Thomas there was no room to doubt, and there was equally as little room to hope for clemency to the prisoners at the hands of the Government.

But in view of the wrongs which the Modocs have received from the white settlers—in view of the manner in which they have been cheated, defrauded and fleeced by Government agents—in view of the fact that their lands have been taken from them, their property stolen and destroyed, and their houses sacked and burned—in view of the massacres like that by Green's party, when the Indians were invited to a peace feast by the whites, but which by the latter was treacherously turned into a feast of blood and murder—in view of the unnumbered and unrecorded outrages visited upon a poor, inferior, illiterate race that goaded them to resistance and desperation, the Government of the United States can well afford to practice magnanimity to the remnant of the feeble band whose lives are now in the hands of the nation.

The trial was a farce, as well as a disgrace to the Administration. In great, prosperous, free America, America with its forty millions of inhabitants; in this land of liberty and Republican institutions; in this land where the TRIAL BY JURY is one of the proudest boasts of the Constitution; in this land trod by no hostile foot, and over which the white banner of peace has floated for eight long years; in this land, where it is proclaimed in the organic law that the military arm shall be subordinate to the civil power; here, in America, the Courts of Justice are supplanted by the might of the sword, and military commissions, the executors of the fiats of tyrants, have usurped the functions of the civil law!

Every foot of territory owned by the United States is subject to the laws and Constitution of our country. On every spot of the soil over which waves the national emblem, the rights and privileges of our written law are guaranteed to the humblest as well as the highest in the land. Every person is entitled, when accused of crime, to a fair and impartial trial by a jury of his peers. This great right cannot be lawfully wrenched away by Congressional usurpation, nor by military edicts. Military commissions in time of peace are illegal tribunals for the trial of offences against the civil law, and are unknown to the Constitution. They are always organized to convict, and if they fail to do so, it is the exception and not the rule.

The question is not whether Jack and the condemned Modocs are guilty or not guilty. Their guilt may be conceded; but if they are executed by the Government, under the decision of an unauthorized and illegal tribunal, the Government itself will be guilty of the crime of MURDER.

We hope that Jack's counsel will exhaust every remedy to test the legality of the trial before the military commission. That he has had a fair and impartial trial, scarcely any one believes. That he is entitled to a fair and impartial trial, no matter how heinous may have been his crimes, every intelligent and reasonable man must admit.

We believe there is some palliation for the conduct of the Modocs, if the reports concerning the outrages which have been practiced upon them by the Indian agents and other American citizens, be true. While we have never justified the depredations of the Modocs, and while we have condemned the treachery to which Canby and the Peace Commissioners fell victims; yet there is behind all this a story of wrongs against the Indians committed by the whites which, in the savage nature, aroused the cruel thirst for retaliation and vengeance. Retaliation, at best, is a barbarous principle, but it is sometimes practiced by nations which claim to be civilized and enlightened.

Let us remember, then, that if the Modocs have committed grievous crimes, they have been grievously outraged. They have had wrongs—deep, bitter, burning wrongs—wrongs

"To stir a fever in the blood of age,
Or make the infant's sinew strong as steel."

The Norfolk Journal thinks that the action of the Republican Committee of Massachusetts in postponing the Gubernatorial Nominating Convention until September the 17th, is a triumph over Butler, owing to the fact that twenty thousand people who are opposed to Butler are absent from the State. Now, for our part, we think Butler is more suitable for Governor of Massachusetts, and can do less harm in that capacity, than as a member of Congress. It is better for the morals of the nation that Butler be not returned to Washington City.

GRAND MASS MEETING AT RICHMOND.

Our Richmond contemporaries are filled with interesting accounts of the grand Conservative mass meeting held in that city on Friday night last.

The Richmond Enquirer says that the Richmond theatre was never so compactly filled, and that it never witnessed a more enthusiastic and intelligent audience. The ladies were out in full numbers. Gov. Walker presided, and speeches were made by Kemper, Withers, R. M. T. Hunter, A. M. Keiley, Robert Ould and others.

Gen. Kemper was the first speaker, and he was received with loud and hearty cheers, "which were echoed and re-echoed from pit to dome." He "made a magnificent argument, pointed, elegant and convincing, and won golden opinions from all sorts of people, while Col. Withers was in his usual happy vein and made a most telling speech." Mr. Hunter's effort was a dignified, able, statesmanlike effort, in which he showed the necessity of keeping Virginia in the hands of her own citizens—of men who were thoroughly imbued with Virginia sentiments. The reception to Colonel Withers was one of the interesting features of the evening. The Enquirer says: "Never did any speaker receive a more flattering reception from any audience. He several times advanced towards the foot-lights and attempted to speak, but his voice was silenced in the thunders of applause. At last he secured silence, and the first words he uttered were: 'I pray God I may prove worthy of this reception.'"

The Enquirer says the campaign has opened grandly, but everything indicates the utmost enthusiasm among the people, foreshadowing a most exciting canvass, and a decisive and triumphant victory in November.

The Norfolk Virginian thinks there is a possible danger ahead for our Government in the grasping propensities of the great German Empire. That Empire which is now the foremost State of Europe, "has the advantage of all others in its position, its internal resources, its unrivalled army, the patriotism of every portion of its wide domain, and above all, in the free spirit and universal education of its masses." The Virginian says this great Empire has made an unsuccessful attempt to purchase Cuba, and has also made tempting overtures to purchase Lower California from Mexico. That paper says the United States can hardly look on in silence and see so powerful a nation as Germany seize upon a valuable country on our own borders.

THE ADAMSES AND RHETTS.—In speaking of an article which appeared in the Savannah News, stating the near relationship of the Adamses, of Massachusetts, and the Rhetts, of South Carolina, the Hon. A. H Stephens says in the Atlanta Constitution:

"We have seldom seen an article in a newspaper on a similar subject, so interesting as one in the Savannah News' editorial columns of the 13th instant, entitled, "A Famous Family—Reminiscences of the Rhetts," and in which a very near blood relationship is known to exist between the two great families of Massachusetts and South Carolina—the Adamses and the Rhetts.

"We often witnessed the antagonistic intellectual rencontre of the two distinguished representatives of these families on the floor of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the U. States at Washington. We mean the able and venerable John Quincy Adams and the chivalrous and eloquent Rhett, but we had no idea at the time that they were so nearly akin. What a romance could be made out of the disclosures of the News. Facts, indeed, are often stranger than fiction."

Since Mr. Lecky suggested that the use of the potato as an article of diet was responsible for the physical degeneracy of the Irish race, several German writers on ethnology have put forth the prediction that nations, so far from improving, will deteriorate, both physically and mentally, should potatoes become their principal food. Carl Voight maintains that the potato contributes very little towards the restoration of wasted tissues; while Mulder, the Holland physiologist, gives the same judgment when he declares that the excessive use of potatoes among the poorer classes, and coffee and tea among the higher ranks, is the cause of the indolence of nations. Leidenfrost maintains, that the revolutions of the last three centuries have been due to revolutions in nutrition. The question has also been raised whether the general use of the potato, to the exclusion of other articles of food, is not responsible for a great deal of the growing physical degeneracy of New England.

TAKING FISH WITH NITRO-GLYCERINE.—One of the means to open the great raft in Red River, Louisiana, says a Southern paper, has enveloped everything of interest to fishermen. We have reference to that explosive power, nitro-glycerine, which is now being so successfully manioulated by Lieutenant Woodruff. In making a blow, or blast, one day last wek, in the neighborhood of Kouns' Canal, at the least calculation 150 fish, weighing from 1 to 100 pounds, were killed by the concussion. The charge was four pounds of nitro-glycerine in two champagne-bottles, sunk to a depth of seven feet under water. The explosion was fearful to behold. The air was filled with water, fish, flying timbers, logs, &c. Fish enough for the force at work a day or two were gathered up, and the balance that did not recover from the "stun" were left on the field of battle.

Californians are boasting of a new domestic fowl, the chapparal cock or churra, which is easily domesticated, and when properly cooked is superior to chicken for eating. The churra is about the size of the curlew, with a top-knot, and a long tail of beautiful colored feathers. It is a great enemy to snakes and vermin.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

BILLOUS.—If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, despondent, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly in morning, poor appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Billiousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only a part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. Sold by all first-class druggists.

How unnecessary the anguish many persons undergo from rheumatism, toothache, neuralgia, toothache and earache. We say unnecessary because the application of Mexican Mustang Liniment to the effected part, or a few drops of it in the cavity of a tooth, affords instantaneous, and what is better, permanent relief. For cuts, wounds, bruises, swellings, and all injuries or in cases which require treatment externally this liniment is everywhere regarded as the most potent and reliable healing agent in existence. For all external injuries or ailments of horses and cattle, it is infallible.

His Honor, HENRY POTTER, late Judge of the United States Court for the District of North Carolina, gave the following as his opinion of Beckwith's Pills:

"For some ten or twelve years past I have been in the habit of using DR. SEE E. WITH'S ANTI-DYSPEPTIC PILLS in my family, and consider them so valuable a domestic medicine, that I never suffer my stock to be exhausted. I have used them with good effect in dyspeptic cases, under various modifications, and have found them efficacious in relieving from Sick Headache, and from all the usual symptoms of functional derangement of the secretions. As an apperient, they are excellent. I have long had the pleasure of an intimate acquaintance with the inventor of these Pills. He is a gentleman of talents, integrity and worth, and he ranks high in the science of medicine and the healing art.
H. POTTER.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The heavy rains have injured the crops in the Enfield section.

Another tobacco factory is soon to commence operations in Statesville.

Streams in Caldwell county are greatly swollen from the recent heavy rains.

J. J. Loughlin, of Warrenton, has gone to Cincinnati to fill a position on the stage.

The house of Mr. Cheatham, Railroad agent at Ridgeway, was burned on Thursday night.

The Presbytery of the colored Presbyterian church was in session in Statesville on Saturday.

The Mitchell plantation, four miles from Warrenton, has been sold to a party of Canadians.

James Pender, Esq., a venerable and highly respectable citizen of Tarboro, died on Wednesday.

Mr. Biggert, who was recently injured in Charlotte by a falling wall, died in that city on Friday.

Silas Everett, an estimable young man of 18 years of age, died in Edgecombe county on the 20 inst.

The crops of corn, cotton, oats, potatoes, &c., in Cleaveland county are said to be better than they have been for many years.

Ransom and Johnson the Republican candidates in the second Senatorial district were elected to the State Senate by a majority of 1,456.

Mrs. Edward Griffin, living on Reddie's River, Wilkesboro, committed suicide on the 11th instant, by hanging himself. No cause assigned.

The Warrenton Gazette learns that the freshets in Little Fishing, Six-pound and Reedy creeks have done considerable damage to the crops and fences.

The Tarboro Enquirer of the 23d inst., tells of a colored man, on the farm of Mr. Mac. Weathersbee, Edgecombe county, who was killed last week by being thrown against a fence by a yearling which he was attempting to catch. His neck was broken.

In speaking of the crops the Wilmington Star of the 23d inst., says:

"We have conversed with several gentlemen recently, from different sections of this and the surrounding counties, all of whom represent the crops, both of cotton and corn, as being much better than was to have been expected. In fact many of them think there will be more than an average yield."

Says the Statesville Intelligencer of the 23d inst.:

"On the 12th instant a very distressing accident occurred by fire in Wilkes county about ten miles below Wilkesboro. A colored man by the name of Parks and his wife were absent from home engaged in gathering blackberries, and during their absence their house caught fire. They had three little children whom they had left alone to care for each other, and being too young to have sufficient discretion to save themselves by leaving the house, remained and were completely consumed.

By passengers arriving on the Charlotte train yesterday, says the Wilmington Journal of the 23d inst., we learn that a most shocking murder was committed in Richmond county, about 18 miles from Rockingham, on the road to Cheraw, some time during last Wednesday night. On Thursday the body was discovered and certain facts led suspicion to a colored man residing not far from the scene. A warrant was procured for his arrest, but he has fled and has not since been seen. When last heard from he was on his way to South Carolina, is probably long ere now over the border and safe in the land of Moses. The murdered man was a respectable citizen, but, unfortunately, our informant could not recall his name. The body had been rifled and the sum of 90 cents was taken therefrom. So far as known this was all of the pecuniary products of this deed of blood.

Wealth of the Menonites—A Most Remarkable Set of Immigrants.

The arrival in this country of the Russian Menonites has created quite an excitement among the officers of those railroad companies that have lands to sell in the far West. This immigration certainly is a most remarkable one, no set of men ever having arrived here before so well supplied with funds as these Russians. Hence their movements are destined to effect a considerable extent the territory which they may elect to settle in. The richest man among those who arrived by the steamer Hammonia, from Hamburg, on Friday last, is a Mr. Peter Isaac, who brings his wife and four children. This gentleman brought with him $140,000 in gold, and was the only one who came in the first cabin. Another gentleman had with him $67,000 in gold, while all the rest brought from $4,000 to $25,000, each family averaging about $10,000. As there were some twenty families in the steerage this would make an aggregate of $200 000 which, with the money of Mr. Isaac, would give a total of $340,000 brought by twenty families. The result of so rich an immigration can hardly be overestimated.

Another fact is worthy of note—the large families of these Menonites. One family consists of twelve, one of eleven, one of nine, two of eight, one of seven, three of six, one of five, three of four, five of three, and fifty unmarried persons—making a total of sixty-nine children and forty-one adults. Their destination is some point in Dakota, although many, influenced by Tom Scott and his European agents, will settle on the line of the Texas Pacific railroad. Tom Scott, now in Europe negotiating the bonds of the Texas Pacific, has not had, however, such success with the Russians as he anticipated, most of them being unwilling to listen to the glowing representations made to them by all sorts of railroad agents, very sensibly preferring to examine for themselves the lands they are to settle, and to study the country they are to inhabit. They are a quiet, moral, inoffensive people, self-denying and economical, and although they do not bring with them much in the way of talent or education—in fact, none of the latter—they will by their united action make whatever points they colonize thrifty, and rapidly build up the country around them. It will be some time before our people will gain their entire confidence, as they are conversant with the principal traits of American character, and, indeed, somewhat overestimate Yankee acumen. Before leaving Hamburg they were warned not to give any information as to their movements to any one, and even the dread of Russian spies has been held out to the simple people to keep them quiet. The result is that, sheep-like, they wander about in flocks, and follow only the beck of their trusted leaders. A fellow-passenger on the Hammonia states that the Russians were quite exclusive, and even proud to others on the voyage, well understanding the value of their money, which they had great fear of being stolen from them at this port.—New York Times.

TALKING WITHOUT A TONGUE.—Sir John Malcom, writing from Persia in 1828, describes the case of a chief named Zal Khan, who, coming into disfavor with the reigning monarch, was condemned to have his eyes put out. Failing in his appeal for a recall of this cruel sentence, Zal Khan "loaded the tyrant with curses," and, in return, his tongue was ordered to be cut out. This order was imperfectly executed, and the loss of half the member is reported to have deprived him of his speech. Being afterward persuaded that, if cut close, he might be able to speak intelligently with the root, he submitted to the operation, and subsequently told his own story to Malcolm. These statements were long doubted, but, in 1857, they were fully confirmed by Sir John McNeill, whose inquiries in Persia, where this mode of punishment is common, led to the discovery of many instances of a similar nature. The belief is universal in that country that excision of the tip of the tongue permanently destroys the power of speech, while its removal at or near the root leaves the victim a chance of regaining the ability to again speak his mind. Surgeons are agreed, however, that, for the purposes of talking, the more there is left of the "unruly member" the better.—Popular Science Monthly.

Sir William Armstrong's plan of coast and harbor defence is by means of a number of small barge like steamers or floating gun carriages, each armed with one very heavy gun. These have been adopted to some extent in England. The first gunboat built was the Staunch, seventy nine feet long, and twenty five feet beam; her draught of water when loaded is six feet, and her displacement one hundred and fifty tons. She carries a nine inch rifled Woolwich gun, throwing a shot of two hundred and fifty pounds with a charge of fifty pounds. The gun is mounted upon a platform, which can be raised to the surface of the deck, or lowered beneath it by means of four large screws, in connection with machinery driven by a donkey engine. Thus the gun can be safely and securely stowed away at all ordinary times, and can also be rapidly brought into action when required.

Among the many paradoxical things peculiar to Australia is a crow that warbles as sweetly as the most dulcet thrush. It is kept as a pet about houses, and one of the species was to be seen and heard, not long since at a bird fancier's in New York.

The Conservative mass meeting in Richmond, Va., on Friday night, was a grand affair. Gen. Kemper, Col. Withers, R. T. Daniel, R. M. T. Hunter and other distinguished gentleman made speeches. Gov. Walker presided.

DOUBLE ACTING FORCE PUMPS

KITCHEN BROS.,

(Successors to CAROLINA PUMP COMPANY, LOCATED IN RALEIGH,)

Are prepared to furnish at short notice the Kitchen Pumps of various sizes with Porcelain Cylinders which can't injure the water. This is a submerged deep well pump, now in use 2½ years without the expense of new packing. We make all sizes, capacity 30 to 150 gallons water per minute, working in every conceivable way and by the use of hose which can be attached in half a minute, these pumps at once become a hand engine of great power, throwing water on the roof of three story buildings, with one hand, and they will stand four to six men safely. We have not heard of one of them being overcome by fire, and yet they have been tested by over fifty fires, saving over $500,000 worth of property. For ordinary use children work them easily if set up by our printed directions, and if so set we warrant them 12 months. Our Double Suction and Force Globe Pumps, also invented by J. L. Kitchen is capable of being used as a Drive well pump and is well adapted to steamers and vessels of any class; one man can throw water on the roof of 3 story buildings. But it has a double ended lever and with four men is a very superior hand engine. The No. 2 Globe Pump is 12 inches in Diameter with 1½ suction and 1¼ discharge pipe and throws 40 to 100 gallons per minute, according to speed. The No. 3 Globe, 7 inches in diameter, 1 inch suction and ¾ of an inch of discharge pipe, capable of 25 to 30 gallons per minute. These Globe Pumps we make of cast iron for common use, brass for salt water and block tin for the inside of hoses for drinking water, they lift the water 25 feet perpendicular, and you can sit it in the house and draw water from springs or wells at great distances.

All kinds of steam and water pipes fitted at short notice; hose, hose-pipe, and couplings furnished here, &c.

Send for price list. The entire depth of wells with good references must accompany all orders.

Some few of these pumps have not given satisfaction but in each case it has been attributable to the maker and not the principle of the pump. We are now employing the best mechanics only, and are determined to have none other.

CERTIFICATES:

I have used Kitchen's Pump nearly 12 months. I think it combines all the qualities of a good Force Pump.

GREENVILLE, N. C., April 19, 1873.

MR. J. L. KITCHEN—The pump you put in my well which is thirty-two feet deep, I have been using nearly two years; it has proven entirely satisfactory, and by attaching a hose which I got of you it becomes a local fire engine of invaluable service. For ordinary domestic purposes, the pump can be used by small children.

T. R. CHERRY.

TARBORO, N. C., Feb. 7, 1873.

JOHN L. KITCHEN, Esq—

Dear Sir—I have had one of your Force Pumps in use for two years, and it has proved in every respect as you represented it and I would not be without it for twice the cost of it.

Yours respectfully,

R. A. WATSON.

GREENVILLE, April 19, 1872.

MR. J. L. KITCHEN—

Sir—I have been using one of your pumps driven from my steam engine, for supplying my tanks. I have used it continually for two years, and can confidently recommend it for any purpose where water is required. The pump is so constructed that it will last without getting out of order for years, and I have heard no complaint from any of your many pumps used in this locality for yard well pumps.

WM. S. BROADDUS.

John C. Gorman and W. C. Stronach, of Raleigh, give certificates stating that they have had the pump in use one old and two years, are perfectly satisfied with it, and it has not cost them one cent for repairs.

Messrs. Wilson and Waddell, at Wilson's Mills, on the North Carolina Railroad, write that the No. 2 Globe Pump, with 150 feet of 1¼ inch hose, purchased from the Messrs. Kitchen to protect their mills and sash and blind factory against fire, is the best pump they have ever seen. They will buy another as soon as it can be made, for another well. Several parties have examined their pump and will buy others like them. aug 5-D&Wtf

"Low prices will win," and "Small profits and quick sales" are truisms that have been satisfactorily tested by ZACHARIAS & CO., in the city of Raleigh.

By a strict adherance to these important rules, their business has increased so rapidly that necessity compells them at an early day, to commence the work of enlarging and extending their store room.

In view of this fact, they now offer their large and attractive stock of Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Clothing, &c., to the public, REGARDLESS OF COST.

BY THE SEA.

Slowly, steadily, under the moon,
Swings the tide in its old time way;
Never too late, and never too soon,
And the evening and the morning make the day.

Slowly, steadily, over the sands,
And over the rocks, to fall and flow,
And this wave has touched a dead man's hands,
And that one has seen a face we know.

They have borne the ship on her way,
Or buried her deep from love and light;
And yet, as they sink at our feet to-day,
Ah, who shall interpret their message aright?

For their separate voices of grief and cheer
Are bending at last in one solemn tone;
And only this song of waves I hear,
"Forever and ever His will is done!"

Slowly, steadily, to and fro,
Swings our life in its weary way;
Now at its ebb, and now at its flow,
And the evening and morning make the day.

Sorrow and happiness, peace and strife,
Fear and rejoicing, its moments know—
How, from the discords of such a life,
Can the clear music of heaven flow?

Yet to the ear of God it swells,
And the blessed round the throne,
Sweeter than chimes of Sabbath bells—
"Forever and ever His will is done!

THE RECENT CHINESE DUEL.—A fatal duel between two Chinamen of Lincoln county, Arkansas, has brought to light a family history as full of sanguinary romance as the chronicles of an Italian duchy. Enmity had for years existed between two families of Canton, China, one named Yung and the other Camm. The Camms took part in a rebellion, which was subdued, and the head of the Camm family, after some preliminary torturing, was stowed away for execution. He made his escape, murdered Yung, and at once committed suicide. One survivor of each family dritted to Lincoln county, Arkansas. In a conversation about home they discovered each other's identity. Revolvers were the weapons. They embraced with all the ardor of Southern chivalry, and fired. Camm fell dead, and Yung is awaiting trial in the jail at Jefferson.

It contains many useful recipes, much valuable statistical matter, and many
